SPOTLIGHT ON SALVATION

Understanding the Gift That Changes Everything

ROBISON MUTUNAMI

SPOTLIGHT ON SALVATION

Understanding the Gift That Changes Everything

Copyright © 2026 Robison Mutunami

All rights reserved.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, distributed, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise—without prior written permission from the author, except for brief quotations used in reviews, teaching, or other uses permitted by copyright law.

Scripture quotations marked NKJV are taken from the New King James Version®. Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Unless otherwise indicated, Scripture references and quotations in this book are from the New King James Version® (NKJV).

First Edition — 2026

Author: Robison Mutunami

Dedication

To everyone who is searching for truth,

To those who are asking questions,

To those who are searching for God,

To those who feel far from Him,

And to those who desire to understand salvation.

May these pages lead you to the greatest gift ever given,

"salvation through Jesus Christ."

And above all,

To Jesus Christ, the Author and Finisher of our faith. The One who gave His life so that we could have life.

May every word point people to You,

May every page bring understanding,

And may every reader come to know the salvation

That is found in You.

To God be all the glory. Amen.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost, I give all glory and honor to God Almighty, whose grace has enabled me to write this book. I am grateful for the wisdom, strength, and inspiration He has given me throughout this journey.

I would like to express my sincere appreciation to my family for their love, patience, encouragement, and support throughout the process of writing Spotlight on Salvation.

I also appreciate everyone who contributed questions, thoughts, conversations, and insights that helped shape the Questions & Answers section of this book. Your questions reminded me of the importance of making the message of salvation clear and understandable.

To everyone who encouraged me, prayed for me, supported this work, or played a part in bringing this book to completion, thank you.

Above all, my prayer is that this book will accomplish its purpose: to bring clarity to the message of salvation and point people to Jesus Christ.

To God be all the glory.

Robison Mutunami

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1 INTRODUCTION: Why Salvation Must Be Understood Properly.

2 CHAPTER 1: The Silent Crisis in the Church.

3 CHAPTER 2: Lost but Religious.

4 CHAPTER 3: The Danger of Lukewarm Faith.

5 CHAPTER 4: What Salvation Really Means.

6 CHAPTER 5: Repentance Is a Decision, Not a Feeling.

7 CHAPTER 6: The Blood That Still Speaks.

8 CHAPTER 7: You Cannot Be Saved and Stay the Same.

9 CHAPTER 8: Grace Is Not Permission.

10 CHAPTER 9: Abide or Drift.

11 CHAPTER 10: Today Is the Day of Salvation.

12 INTRODUCTION TO QUESTION AND ANSWERS.

13 QUESTION 1 up to 18 AND ANSWERS

14 FINAL INVITATION: RECEIVE SALVATION.

15 FINAL WORD.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Robison Mutunami is a prophet, teacher, and the founder of Life In Christ Fellowship. Based in Pretoria, South Africa, he began his preaching ministry in 2012 and later established Life In Christ Fellowship in 2023.

Robison believes that God called him to call others and to become a voice that points people toward salvation through Jesus Christ. His ministry is centered on the Word of God and on helping people understand who they are in Christ, not according to the opinions of people or even their own perceptions, but according to what God has spoken through His Word.

A central message of his ministry is found in the words of Jesus: “Abide in Me, and I in you” (John 15:4, NKJV). Robison teaches that when a person receives Christ, the Christian life is not merely about religion or outward change, but about experiencing a living relationship with Christ and allowing the Word of God to transform the way they think, live, and relate to God.

Spotlight on Salvation was born out of Robison's experiences in street evangelism, where he encountered questions and misunderstandings about salvation. These encounters revealed to him how many people had received different messages about salvation without truly understanding it. This book is his response to that need for clarity.

His desire is to help unbelievers, new believers, and believers struggling with their faith understand true salvation, receive it through Jesus Christ, and experience the fruit of a genuine relationship with Him.

This is his first book, with further teachings and books planned for the future.

His message is simple: It is not about me, but about the One who gives me salvation and dwells in me—Jesus Christ.

Scripture foundation

“Abide in Me, and I in you.” — John 15:4 (NKJV)

INTRODUCTION

Why Salvation Must Be Understood Properly?

Salvation is the foundation of the Christian faith, yet it remains one of the most misunderstood realities in the lives of many. It is spoken about often, but not always understood. It is claimed by many, yet not always experienced in its fullness.

We live in a time where salvation has, in many ways, been reduced to a moment, a confession, or a religious routine. For some, it is a prayer once spoken. For others, it is a label they carry without transformation. But salvation is far more than words spoken or affiliations claimed — it is a divine work that brings a complete change of life.

This book was written to bring clarity where there has been confusion, truth where there has been assumption, and light where there has been misunderstanding.

Many believe they are saved because they attend church, because they try to live right, or because they associate themselves with Christian beliefs. Yet salvation is not found in effort, routine, or intention. It is found in a person — Jesus Christ.

There are also those who have never truly understood what salvation means. They may feel unworthy, distant, or unsure of how to come to God. This book speaks to you as well.

Salvation is not complicated, but it is not to be taken lightly. It is simple enough to be received by anyone, yet powerful enough to completely transform a life.

It begins with the recognition of our condition — that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. It continues with the understanding that no amount of good works can reconcile us back to Him. And it is fulfilled in the finished work of Jesus Christ, who gave His life so that we might receive life.

This book will walk you through the truth about salvation — what it is, why it is necessary, and what it produces in the life of the one who truly receives it.

It is both an invitation and a warning.

An invitation to those who have never come to Christ, and a warning to those who have grown comfortable without transformation.

Salvation is not just about escaping judgment — it is about entering into life.

As you read these pages, approach them with honesty and openness. Allow truth to speak. Allow light to expose. And most importantly, allow your heart to respond.

Because in the end, salvation is not just something to understand — it is something to receive.

CHAPTER 1

The Silent Crisis in the Church

There is a crisis in the church today — not always visible, not always spoken about, but deeply present.

It is a silent crisis.

It is not the absence of churches, for churches are filled. It is not the absence of preaching, for messages are heard every day. It is not even the absence of activity, for many are actively involved in religious practices.

Yet, in the midst of all this, something essential is missing.

The power of true salvation.

Many have learned how to gather, how to serve, and how to speak the language of faith, but fewer have truly encountered the transforming power of Jesus Christ. There is a form of godliness, but without its power.

As it is written:

"But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come:

For men will be lovers of themselves… lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God,

Having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away!"

— 2 Timothy 3:1–5 (NKJV)

This is the condition of many — not outside the church, but within it.

There are those who profess faith, yet their lives remain unchanged. There are those who speak of God, yet do not walk with Him. There are those who claim salvation, yet show no evidence of transformation.

This is not a message of condemnation, but a call to awareness.

Jesus Himself warned of this reality:

“Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ shall enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father in heaven.”

— Matthew 7:21 (NKJV)

These words are not directed at the world, but at those who believe they are right with God.

The crisis is not that people have never heard about Jesus — it is that many have heard, responded outwardly, but have never truly surrendered inwardly.

Salvation has been reduced to a moment instead of a life.

A prayer instead of a transformation.

An event instead of a new birth.

But true salvation produces evidence.

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.”

— 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

Where there is no change, something is missing.

Where there is no hunger for God, something is lacking.

Where there is no separation from sin, something is wrong.

This is the silent crisis — a generation that is familiar with God, but not transformed by Him.

A generation that attends church, but does not abide in Christ.

A generation that speaks of grace, but lives without conviction.

The danger of this condition is not only deception, but false assurance — the belief that one is saved when, in reality, they have never truly encountered salvation.

The Apostle Paul wrote:

“Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves.”

— 2 Corinthians 13:5 (NKJV)

This is the call — not to judge others, but to examine oneself.

Salvation is too important to assume.

Eternity is too real to ignore.

This chapter is not written to discourage, but to awaken. Not to push away, but to draw closer — to bring every reader to a place of honest reflection.

Because before salvation can be fully understood, one must first recognize the need for it.

And until the reality of this crisis is acknowledged, the power of true salvation will remain distant.

The question is no longer: “Do I go to church?”

The question is: “Have I truly been transformed?”

This is where the journey begins.

CHAPTER 2

Lost but Religious

One of the greatest deceptions is not in being far from God — it is in thinking you are close to Him when you are not.

There are many who are not lost in the world, but lost in religion.

They attend church.

They know scriptures.

They speak the language of faith.

They participate in religious activities.

Yet, in all of this, they have never truly encountered salvation.

Religion can give a form of nearness to God without producing a true relationship with Him. It can create familiarity without transformation, activity without surrender, and appearance without reality.

This is a dangerous place to be.

Jesus confronted this condition directly when speaking to the religious leaders of His time:

"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of extortion and self-indulgence."

— Matthew 23:25 (NKJV)

Outwardly, everything appeared right.

Inwardly, everything was still unchanged.

This is the nature of religion without salvation — it focuses on the external while ignoring the internal.

A person can learn how to behave like a Christian without ever becoming one.

They can know what is right, speak what is right, and even teach what is right — yet still lack the life of God within them.

The Apostle Paul speaks of this kind of confidence:

"…concerning the righteousness which is in the law, blameless."

— Philippians 3:6 (NKJV)

Paul had religion.

He had discipline.

He had knowledge.

But he did not have Christ — until he encountered Him.

Religion cannot save.

It can guide behavior, but it cannot transform the heart. It can produce discipline, but it cannot produce new life.

Salvation is not about improving the old nature — it is about receiving a new one.

Jesus made this clear:

“Most assuredly, I say to you, unless one is born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

— John 3:3 (NKJV)

Not reformed.

Not adjusted.

Not educated.

Born again.

This is where many miss it. They attempt to change their actions without addressing their nature. They try to live right without first being made new.

But no matter how much effort is applied, the old nature cannot produce spiritual life.

It must be replaced.

Religious activity without true salvation often leads to pride, comparison, and self-righteousness. A person begins to measure themselves by others instead of by truth.

This was the condition of the Pharisee in Jesus’ parable:

“God, I thank You that I am not like other men…”

— Luke 18:11 (NKJV)

This is the voice of religion — confident, but empty.

In contrast, the tax collector, aware of his condition, cried out:

“God, be merciful to me a sinner!”

— Luke 18:13 (NKJV)

And it was he who went home justified.

Salvation begins where pride ends.

It begins when a person stops comparing, stops pretending, and acknowledges their true condition before God.

There is a difference between knowing about God and knowing Him.

There is a difference between practicing religion and possessing life.

Jesus said:

“These people draw near to Me with their mouth, and honor Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.”

— Matthew 15:8 (NKJV)

This is the danger — to be near in words, but far in heart.

To appear right, but remain unchanged.

To be involved, but not transformed.

This chapter is a call to honesty.

Not to reject church, not to reject fellowship, but to reject anything that replaces true salvation.

Because in the end, it will not matter how much one knew, how much one did, or how long one was involved.

What will matter is this:

Was there true salvation?

Was there a new birth?

Was there a real relationship with Jesus Christ?

These are the questions that cannot be ignored.

Because it is possible to be surrounded by truth…

And still be lost.

CHAPTER 3

The Danger of Lukewarm Faith

There is a condition more dangerous than being openly lost — it is being lukewarm.

The one who is lost often knows they are far from God. But the one who is lukewarm believes they are close, while remaining unchanged.

Lukewarm faith is a state of spiritual indifference. It is neither fully committed nor completely disconnected. It is a mixture — a life that acknowledges God, but does not fully surrender to Him.

This condition is not overlooked in scripture. It is directly addressed.

"So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth."

— Revelation 3:16 (NKJV)

These are not light words.

They reveal how seriously God views a faith that is half-hearted — a faith that is comfortable, passive, and without conviction.

Luke warmness often disguises itself as stability. A person is not openly rebellious, but neither are they fully devoted. They maintain a form of faith, but without passion, without hunger, and without growth.

They pray, but without depth.

They attend, but without engagement.

They believe, but without transformation.

This is the danger — a life that appears acceptable, yet lacks spiritual fire.

Jesus continues:

“Because you say, ‘I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’ — and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked.”

— Revelation 3:17 (NKJV)

Luke warmness produces deception.

It convinces a person that they are well when they are in need. It creates a false sense of security, where there should be urgency.

A lukewarm heart no longer responds to conviction the way it once did. Sin becomes easier to tolerate. Prayer becomes less frequent. The Word becomes less impactful.

What was once sharp becomes dull.

What was once alive becomes routine.

This condition does not happen suddenly — it develops gradually.

It begins with small compromises.

A neglected prayer.

A delayed obedience.

A tolerated sin.

Over time, sensitivity to God begins to fade.

Scripture warns us:

“Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap.”

— Galatians 6:7 (NKJV)

Lukewarm faith often continues because the consequences are not immediate. But what is sown in complacency will eventually produce spiritual emptiness.

God does not call His people to a partial life.

He calls for full devotion.

“You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.”

— Matthew 22:37 (NKJV)

Not part.

All.

Anything less becomes a divided life — a life where God is acknowledged, but not given full authority.

Luke warmness is dangerous because it resists both correction and growth. It avoids extremes, but in doing so, it avoids transformation.

It chooses comfort over conviction.

Convenience over commitment.

Routine over relationship.

But God, in His mercy, does not leave the lukewarm without instruction.

“As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent.”

— Revelation 3:19 (NKJV)

This is the call — not rejection, but return.

Not condemnation, but correction.

The answer to Luke warmness is not more activity, but true repentance. It is a decision to turn fully back to God, to restore hunger, to renew devotion, and to pursue Him with sincerity.

Lukewarm faith must be confronted, because it cannot produce the life that salvation was meant to bring.

Salvation is not passive.

It is living.

It is active.

It is transformative.

A truly saved life cannot remain indifferent.

The question is not whether one believes.

The question is:

Is the heart fully surrendered?

Because in the end, God is not looking for a divided life.

He is calling for a devoted one.

CHAPTER 4

What Salvation Really Means

Salvation is more than a word, more than a moment, more than a prayer. It is a divine reality — a life-changing encounter with Jesus Christ that transforms everything about who we are.

Many have heard the term, many have repeated it, but few understand what it truly involves. Salvation is not merely a ticket to heaven. It is a gift, a relationship, a new life, and a new nature.

The Bible declares:

"For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, not of works, lest anyone should boast."

— Ephesians 2:8–9 (NKJV)

Notice: it is by grace, through faith, and it is a gift. It cannot be earned, bought, or achieved. It is freely given by God to those who believe.

Salvation begins with recognizing the problem — sin and separation from God.

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

— Romans 3:23 (NKJV)

This is the starting point. Until one acknowledges their sin, salvation cannot be received. Recognition leads to repentance — a turning away from sin and a turning toward God.

Salvation is not self-improvement; it is divine replacement. It is God exchanging our sinful nature for a new nature in Christ:

“Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.”

— 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

Through salvation, we are reconciled to God. We are no longer enemies, but children. We are no longer under condemnation, but covered by grace. We are no longer dead in sin, but alive in Christ:

“And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses.”

— Colossians 2:13 (NKJV)

Salvation is also personal. It is not inherited, assumed, or automatic. Each person must individually receive it:

“Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life; and whoever does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him.”

— John 3:36 (NKJV)

To receive salvation, one must believe in Jesus Christ — that He died for sin, rose again, and offers eternal life as a free gift.

Salvation produces evidence. It is not hidden; it is transformative. A truly saved life will demonstrate:

- Repentance from sin
- Hunger for God
- Desire to obey His Word
- Love for others

These are not requirements to earn salvation, but evidence that salvation has occurred.

Salvation is total — covering past, present, and future.

- Past: Forgiveness for sin
- Present: Power to live a transformed life
- Future: Eternal life in the presence of God

This is why salvation cannot be partial, lukewarm, or assumed. It is full, complete, and eternal.

In conclusion, salvation really means:

- God rescues the lost
- Christ redeems the sinner
- The believer is transformed
- Eternal life is given freely

Salvation is not complicated. It is not hidden. It is a gift of God, received by faith, producing a new life.

And it begins the moment the heart truly says: “Jesus, I believe in You.”

CHAPTER 5

Repentance Is a Decision, Not a Feeling

Salvation cannot be received without repentance. Yet, many misunderstand what repentance truly is. Some believe it is an emotion — a feeling of sorrow or guilt. Others think it is a ritual, a one-time act, or merely saying the right words. But repentance is none of these.

Repentance is a decision of the heart — a deliberate turning away from sin and turning toward God.

The Bible makes this clear:

"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

— Matthew 4:17 (NKJV)

Jesus' call to repentance was not about feeling bad for sin. It was about changing direction. A life that was going away from God must turn toward Him. This is the essence of repentance.

The Apostle Peter also instructed:

"Repent therefore and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, so that times of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord."

— Acts 3:19 (NKJV)

Notice the sequence: repentance leads to conversion, which leads to forgiveness and refreshing from God.

Repentance is a choice. It is not automatic, and it is not earned by human effort. It requires honesty, humility, and a willingness to surrender completely to God.

Many are trapped in sin because they have confused remorse with repentance. Feeling sorry is not the same as turning from sin. One can feel guilty for wrongdoing but continue in the same behavior. True repentance requires action — a deliberate break with sin.

The Prophet Isaiah declares:

"Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon."

— Isaiah 55:6–7 (NKJV)

Repentance is not partial. It is complete. It is a full acknowledgment of our sin, a turning from it, and a turning to God.

It is not about regret.

It is about redirection.

Salvation begins when the heart truly decides to turn away from sin and receive God's gift of life. No feeling, no ritual, no mere words can replace that decision.

The challenge is this: many wait for emotion to compel them, but salvation calls for faith and obedience first. The heart must make the choice, and then God provides the assurance and transformation.

Repentance is the door. Faith in Jesus Christ is the key. Step through the door, and eternal life begins.

"Except you repent, you will all likewise perish."

— Luke 13:3 (NKJV)

This is urgent. This is real. This is necessary.

Salvation is freely offered, but it must be received by a heart that has turned fully toward God.

Repentance is not optional. It is the beginning of a new life — a life that aligns with God's will, empowered by His Spirit, and secured by the finished work of Christ on the cross.

CHAPTER 6

The Blood That Still Speaks

The blood of Jesus Christ is not just a symbol from history — it is a living testimony that continues to speak today. It is the power that cleanses, redeems, and reconciles humanity to God.

The Bible declares:

"But Christ came as High Priest of the good things to come, with the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with hands, that is, not of this creation. Not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood He entered the Most Holy Place once for all, having obtained eternal redemption."

— Hebrews 9:11–12 (NKJV)

Notice: it was His own blood. No substitute, no ritual, no human effort could take its place. It is eternal, complete, and sufficient for all who believe.

The blood of Jesus speaks in three powerful ways:

1. It Speaks of Forgiveness

"…through His blood, we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace."

— Ephesians 1:7 (NKJV)

Your sins, past, present, and future, are covered. The blood declares: "You are forgiven."

2. It Speaks of Victory

The enemy has been defeated, and no accusation against a believer can stand when the blood of Jesus speaks on their behalf:

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony…”

— Revelation 12:11 (NKJV)

The blood declares: “You are more than a conqueror.”

3. It Speaks of Access to God

Through the blood, we are reconciled and can boldly approach the throne of grace:

“Having boldness to enter the Holiest by the blood of Jesus, by a new and living way which He consecrated for us…”

— Hebrews 10:19–20 (NKJV)

The blood is not silent. It continues to speak to every sinner, every believer, and every seeker today.

It says: “Your life matters. You are redeemed. You are accepted. Come to Me and live.”

Salvation is made possible because of the blood. It is the bridge between a holy God and fallen humanity. It is the proof that God’s love is active, not passive. It is the evidence that the cross was not just an event — it was a victory with eternal consequence.

This is why every believer must understand the blood of Jesus. Without it, salvation is misunderstood. Without it, grace is undervalued. Without it, faith is weakened.

But when the blood is embraced by faith, it produces transformation. It cleanses the conscience, empowers the believer, and restores the lost.

The question is simple:

Have you believed in the blood that still speaks?

Have you allowed it to cover, cleanse, and redeem your life today?

Salvation is not a distant memory.

It is not merely a story from the past.

It is a living reality — active, present, and speaking to every heart willing to hear.

The blood of Jesus speaks, and it calls each reader to respond: Believe, receive, and live.

CHAPTER 7

You Cannot Be Saved and Stay the Same

Salvation is not a temporary change. It is not a label added to your name or a momentary decision. True salvation transforms everything — your thoughts, your actions, your desires, and your purpose.

The Bible confirms this truth:

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new."

— 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

If nothing changes in your life, if sin continues without conviction, if your desires remain the same, then the reality of salvation has not been fully experienced.

Salvation is a divine exchange:

- Your sin for His righteousness
- Your death for His life
- Your separation for His presence

The Apostle Paul explained:

"Knowing this, that our old man was crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves of sin."

— Romans 6:6 (NKJV)

Salvation is not merely about avoiding hell; it is about becoming alive in Christ. To be saved means to be transformed. To receive His life means the old life dies.

Many make the mistake of treating salvation as a safety net, rather than a life-transforming power. They continue in the same sinful patterns, expecting God's promises without walking in obedience.

But God calls for more than mere acknowledgment. He calls for surrender.

"Do you not know that as many of us as were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into His death? Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

— Romans 6:3–4 (NKJV)

New life means new behavior, new desires, and new priorities. It does not mean perfection, but it does mean change.

Salvation is not a stagnant faith. It is an active, growing, transforming relationship with God.

- If bitterness remains, salvation has not fully produced love.
- If greed remains, salvation has not fully produced generosity.
- If sin continues unchecked, salvation has not fully produced freedom.

The reality is simple:

You cannot be saved and remain unchanged.

Transformation is the evidence of salvation. It is the proof that Christ's work is alive in you. It is the living testimony that heaven rejoices over your new life.

Salvation is a journey, but it is not a journey without results. The heart that receives Christ is changed, empowered, and aligned with God's will.

Ask yourself today:

Has salvation produced fruit in my life?

Have I truly allowed Christ to transform me?

Am I walking in the newness of life promised by His Word?

Salvation is free.

Transformation is inevitable.

And the life of a believer will never be the same again.

CHAPTER 8

Grace Is Not Permission

Many misunderstand God's grace. They believe that because salvation is a gift, sin is now acceptable. They claim, "God forgives me anyway," and continue in patterns that displease Him. This is a dangerous deception.

Grace is unearned favor — freely given by God through Jesus Christ. But it is not a license to sin.

The Bible warns clearly:

"What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin that grace may abound? Certainly not! How shall we who died to sin live any longer in it?"

— Romans 6:1–2 (NKJV)

Salvation does not give freedom to remain in bondage to sin; it gives freedom from sin's power. Grace covers past sins, empowers the present, and shapes the future.

Peter explains the purpose of grace:

"…His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who called us…"

— 2 Peter 1:3 (NKJV)

Grace is designed to equip us to live holy, righteous, and God-pleasing lives. It is not a shield for careless living, but a tool for transformation.

A person under grace is expected to walk in obedience, not in indulgence.

Paul emphasizes this principle:

“For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.”

— Romans 6:14 (NKJV)

Being “under grace” does not mean being under license. It means being under God’s power to overcome sin.

True grace leads to:

- Repentance
- Obedience
- Transformation
- Love for God and others

Anything less is a misunderstanding.

The danger of treating grace as permission is spiritual stagnation. It creates believers who are comfortable in sin, proud in error, and blind to God’s call for holiness.

Salvation requires responsibility. It requires the believer to recognize the cost of sin and the value of obedience. Grace gives freedom, but that freedom is designed to produce fruit:

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.”

— Galatians 5:22–23 (NKJV)

Grace transforms behavior, motivates godly living, and produces evidence of the Spirit's presence.

Remember: Jesus on the cross did not die to make sin attractive. He died to redeem, transform, and empower.

To misunderstand grace is to misuse salvation. To abuse grace is to dishonor the sacrifice of Christ.

Salvation without holiness is incomplete.

Grace without transformation is misapplied.

God's grace is the power to live victorious, holy, and abundant life, not a free pass to sin.

The challenge is simple: embrace grace, but embrace it as God intended — to live transformed, holy, and fully surrendered.

CHAPTER 9

Abide or Drift

Salvation is not a single event that completes itself and then stops. It is a relationship — a living, breathing connection with Jesus Christ. And every relationship requires attention, presence, and commitment.

Jesus Himself said:

"Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me."

— John 15:4 (NKJV)

To abide means to remain, to dwell, to stay connected. To drift is to slowly lose touch, to wander, to become spiritually disconnected.

Many believers drift because they confuse salvation with self-sufficiency. They believe that because they accepted Christ once, their spiritual life requires little effort. They forget that salvation produces life — and life must be nurtured.

The apostle John warns:

"Little children, let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous."

— 1 John 3:7 (NKJV)

Remaining in Christ is not passive. It requires daily prayer, obedience, study of God's Word, and submission to the Holy Spirit. It requires dependence on Him in every area of life.

Drifting leads to spiritual stagnation, compromise, and eventually, deception. The heart grows cold, desire fades, and sin becomes easier to tolerate.

Paul reminds us:

"Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves. Do you not know yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you? — unless indeed you are disqualified."

— 2 Corinthians 13:5 (NKJV)

Abiding is a choice — a daily, conscious decision to remain in the presence of God. It is recognizing that apart from Him, we can do nothing:

"I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing."

— John 15:5 (NKJV)

Notice the words: "much fruit" — a life connected to Jesus is productive, empowered, and victorious.

Drifting, on the other hand, produces weakness, compromise, and spiritual emptiness. The difference is connection. Abiding produces life. Drifting produces death.

Abiding also protects from deception:

"Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ."

— Colossians 2:8 (NKJV)

Those who drift are vulnerable. Those who abide are anchored.

The challenge is clear:

- Will you remain in Christ daily?
- Will you let His Word guide, His Spirit empower, and His presence transform?
- Or will you drift, comfortable in routine, yet distant from power?

Salvation is not static. It is a dynamic, ongoing relationship.

Abide, and you will bear fruit. Drift, and you will wither.

The choice is daily, personal, and eternal.

CHAPTER 10

Today Is the Day of Salvation

Salvation is not a concept for tomorrow. It is not a lesson to be pondered indefinitely. It is an urgent, present reality that must be received today.

The Bible declares:

"Behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

— 2 Corinthians 6:2 (NKJV)

Today is the day to respond. Not later. Not when circumstances are easier. Not after life has taught its lessons. Today.

Salvation is offered freely to all who will believe:

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

— John 3:16 (NKJV)

It is a gift — freely given, yet it must be received. You cannot earn it. You cannot bargain for it. You cannot postpone it. You must believe and act today.

How does one respond to this gift?

1. Recognize your need

"…all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." — Romans 3:23 (NKJV)

Acknowledge your sin, your separation from God, and your inability to save yourself.

2. Repent

"Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." — Acts 2:38 (NKJV)

Turn from sin. Turn toward God. Make a conscious decision to surrender your life.

3. Believe in Jesus Christ

"Whoever believes in the Son has everlasting life; and whoever does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him." — John 3:36 (NKJV)

Trust that Jesus died for your sins, rose again, and offers you eternal life.

4. Receive the gift

"For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God." — Ephesians 2:8 (NKJV)

Salvation is received, not earned. It is received by faith — believing, trusting, and surrendering.

This is the moment to decide. The moment to respond. The moment to embrace life that cannot be taken away.

Do not wait for emotion. Do not wait for perfection. Do not wait for convenience.

The invitation is today. The decision is yours.

"Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts." — Hebrews 3:15 (NKJV)

Salvation is immediate. Eternal. Transformative. And it begins the moment you believe.

Will you receive it today?

Will you turn from sin, surrender to Jesus, and allow the blood of Christ to speak on your behalf?

This is the day. This is the hour. This is the moment.

Believe. Receive. Live.

Salvation is real. It is for you. And heaven rejoices when a soul is saved.

Introduction to Question and Answer

Many people desire salvation, yet carry questions in their hearts. Some are spoken, others remain hidden. This section addresses common questions about salvation through the truth of God's Word. May every answer bring clarity, conviction, and revelation as you draw closer to Jesus Christ.

Q1: How do I know that I am truly saved?

Direct Answer

You know you are truly saved when you have genuinely believed in Jesus Christ, placed your trust in His finished work on the cross, and your heart has been transformed by Him.

Scripture (NKJV)

"He who believes in the Son has everlasting life…" — John 3:36 (NKJV)

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." — 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

"The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God." — Romans 8:16 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not proven by feelings, but by faith in Jesus Christ and the evidence of a changed life. When you are truly saved, something happens within you that cannot be manufactured by human effort.

There is:

A new desire for God

A growing hatred for sin

A hunger for righteousness

And a sensitivity to the Holy Spirit

You may not become perfect overnight, but you will no longer be comfortable living the same life you once lived. Your heart begins to shift.

More importantly, the assurance of salvation comes from God Himself. The Holy Spirit confirms within you that you now belong to Him. This inner witness is deeper than emotion—it is spiritual conviction and confidence rooted in truth.

Key Truth

You are not saved because you feel saved.

You are saved because you believe in Jesus, and your life begins to reflect Him.

Reflection

Do you believe in Jesus Christ with your heart, and is your life beginning to change because of Him?

Q2: Is there evidence or a sign that confirms I have received salvation?

Direct Answer

Yes—salvation is confirmed by both inward transformation and outward fruit. The greatest evidence is a changed heart that begins to produce a changed life.

Scripture (NKJV)

"Therefore by their fruits you will know them." — Matthew 7:20 (NKJV)

"We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren." — 1 John 3:14 (NKJV)

"If you love Me, keep My commandments." — John 14:15 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not hidden—it reveals itself. While it begins within the heart, it does not remain there. It becomes visible through how a person thinks, speaks, and lives.

There are clear evidences of salvation:

A new love for God — You desire Him, not just what He can give

A love for others — Especially fellow believers

Conviction of sin — You are no longer comfortable living in sin

Desire for righteousness — You begin to pursue what pleases God

Obedience to God's Word — Not perfectly, but genuinely

These are not things you force—they are the result of a new nature within you.

Salvation is not about trying to appear changed; it is about being changed from the inside out. The fruit you bear becomes the visible evidence of the invisible work God has done in you.

Key Truth

Salvation is invisible in its beginning, but undeniable in its evidence.

Reflection

Is there fruit in your life that points to a transformed heart?

Q3: What happens after I receive salvation?

Direct Answer

After receiving salvation, you begin a new life in Christ—a life of growth, transformation, and relationship with God.

Scripture (NKJV)

"As newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby." — 1 Peter 2:2 (NKJV)

"Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." — Romans 5:1 (NKJV)

"Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure." — Philippians 2:12–13 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not the finish line—it is the doorway into a new life.

The moment you are saved:

You are justified (declared righteous before God)

You are reconciled (restored into relationship with God)

You receive peace with God

You are given a new identity

But from that moment, a journey begins—a journey of spiritual growth.

You begin to:

Grow in understanding of God's Word

Develop a relationship with God through prayer

Be transformed in your character and thinking

Learn to walk by the Spirit, not by the flesh

This process is often called sanctification—becoming more like Christ daily.

You will still face challenges, temptations, and tests, but now you do not walk alone. God is actively working in you, shaping you into who He has called you to be.

Key Truth

Salvation is a moment, but transformation is a journey.

Reflection

Are you growing in your relationship with God, or have you remained where you first believed?

Q4: Why should I receive salvation?

Direct Answer

You should receive salvation because without it, you are separated from God; but through it, you receive forgiveness, eternal life, and restoration into a relationship with Him.

Scripture (NKJV)

"For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord." — Romans 6:23 (NKJV)

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." — John 3:16 (NKJV)

"Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." — Acts 4:12 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Every person must face this truth: without salvation, we are lost.

Sin separated humanity from God, and no amount of good works, effort, or morality can bridge that gap. Left on our own, we remain spiritually dead and eternally separated from Him.

But salvation is God's answer to this condition.

You should receive salvation because:

You need forgiveness of sin

You need restoration to God

You need eternal life

You need freedom from the power of sin

More than anything, you should receive salvation because God loves you. Salvation is not just about escaping judgment—it is about being brought into a living relationship with your Creator.

It is an invitation from God Himself:

To leave death and receive life.

To leave separation and enter relationship.

To leave darkness and walk in light.

Key Truth

Salvation is not just an option—it is a necessity.

Reflection

If salvation is God's gift of life, what is keeping you from receiving it?

Q5: After receiving salvation, can a person lose it or become unsaved?

Direct Answer

Salvation is secure in Christ, not in human effort. However, it must be genuinely received and lived in—what is truly born of God endures.

Scripture (NKJV)

"And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand." — John 10:28 (NKJV)

"He who endures to the end shall be saved." — Matthew 24:13 (NKJV)

"They went out from us, but they were not of us…" — 1 John 2:19 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not fragile—it is anchored in Jesus Christ. It is not something you maintain by your strength, but something God establishes through His grace.

Jesus makes it clear: those who truly belong to Him are secure in His hand. No external force can take a true believer away from Him.

However, the Bible also teaches that:

Salvation must be genuine, not superficial

Faith must be living and enduring, not temporary

A person's life will reveal whether they truly belong to Christ

There are those who appear to receive salvation but later walk away completely. Scripture reveals that such cases point not to lost salvation, but to a faith that was never truly rooted in Christ.

True salvation produces endurance—not perfection, but persistence. Even in weakness, the truly saved are drawn back to God, not away from Him.

Key Truth

True salvation is not easily lost—but it is clearly revealed by a life that continues with Christ.

Reflection

Is your faith rooted deeply in Christ, or is it dependent on circumstances?

Q6: Does salvation grow in a person after receiving it?

Direct Answer

Salvation itself is a complete gift, but the life that comes from it grows. You grow in your understanding, character, and relationship with God.

Scripture (NKJV)

"As newborn babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that you may grow thereby." — 1 Peter 2:2 (NKJV)

"But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." — 2 Peter 3:18 (NKJV)

"Till we all come to the unity of the faith… to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ." — Ephesians 4:13 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is perfect and complete the moment you receive it—you are fully accepted, fully forgiven, and fully made a child of God. It does not increase or decrease.

However, your experience of salvation grows.

Think of it this way:

Salvation is like being born, but growth follows birth.

After salvation:

Your understanding of God deepens

Your character is transformed over time

Your faith becomes stronger

Your spiritual maturity develops

You begin as a spiritual infant, but God's desire is that you grow into maturity—reflecting Christ more and more.

This growth does not happen automatically; it requires:

The Word of God

Prayer and fellowship with God

Obedience to truth

Yielding to the Holy Spirit

Key Truth

Salvation does not grow—but the one who is saved must grow.

Reflection

Are you growing in your walk with God, or have you remained spiritually where you first believed?

Q7: Does someone who is chosen (the elect) still need to receive salvation?

Direct Answer

Yes. Even those who are chosen must personally receive salvation through faith in Jesus Christ. Being chosen does not replace the need to believe.

Scripture (NKJV)

"For many are called, but few are chosen." — Matthew 22:14 (NKJV)

"Whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." — John 3:16 (NKJV)

"How shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard?" — Romans 10:14 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

The concept of being "chosen" (the elect) is often misunderstood. God, in His sovereignty, has a plan and a people—but He has also established the means by which salvation is received: faith in Jesus Christ.

No one is saved automatically.

Even those whom God calls must:

Hear the gospel

Respond in faith

Receive Christ personally

Being chosen does not eliminate responsibility—it reveals God's grace in drawing people to Himself.

The truth is:

God calls

God draws

God reveals

But man must respond

Salvation is not forced upon anyone. It is received through a willing heart that believes in Jesus Christ.

Key Truth

Being chosen by God does not remove the need to believe—it makes the call to believe even more urgent.

Reflection

Have you personally responded to God's call, or are you assuming salvation without believing?

Q8: What is the purpose of salvation in my life?

Direct Answer

The purpose of salvation is to restore you to God, transform your life, and enable you to live for His glory.

Scripture (NKJV)

"Who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and grace…" — 2 Timothy 1:9 (NKJV)

"For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works…" — Ephesians 2:10 (NKJV)

"That we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory." — Ephesians 1:12 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not only about being saved from something—it is about being saved for something.

God did not just save you from sin, judgment, and separation—He saved you for purpose.

The purpose of salvation includes:

Restoration to God.

You are brought back into relationship with your Creator.

Transformation of your life.

Your character, desires, and direction begin to change.

Living for God's glory.

Your life becomes a reflection of Him.

Walking in divine purpose.

You are created to do good works prepared by God.

Salvation gives your life meaning beyond survival, struggle, or personal success. It aligns you with God's eternal purpose.

You are no longer living randomly—you are living intentionally in Christ.

Key Truth

You are not just saved from sin—you are saved for purpose.

Reflection

Are you living with the purpose God saved you for, or are you still living for yourself?

Q9: Is there anything I must change in my life after I am saved?

Direct Answer

Yes. While salvation is a free gift, it produces a transformed life. Change is not the condition for salvation, but it is the result of it.

Scripture (NKJV)

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." — 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

“And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind…” — Romans 12:2 (NKJV)

“Let him who stole steal no longer…” — Ephesians 4:28 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation changes you from the inside, and that inner change begins to reflect outwardly in how you live.

You are not saved because you changed—

But once you are saved, change becomes inevitable.

This change affects:

Your thoughts

Your speech

Your behavior

Your desires

There will be things you once loved that you begin to walk away from, and things you once ignored that you now pursue.

However, this transformation is a process, not an instant perfection. God works in you over time, shaping your life to reflect Christ.

You are not trying to become someone new—

You are becoming who you already are in Christ.

Key Truth

Change is not the price of salvation—it is the proof of it.

Reflection

Is your life aligning with the new identity you have received in Christ?

Q10: Does salvation mean that I am adopted by God as His child?

Direct Answer

Yes. Through salvation, you are not only forgiven—you are adopted into God’s family and become His child.

Scripture (NKJV)

“But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, to those who believe in His name.” — John 1:12 (NKJV)

“Having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself…” — Ephesians 1:5 (NKJV)

“You received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, ‘Abba, Father.’” — Romans 8:15 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is more than being rescued from sin—it is being brought into a family.

Before salvation, we were separated from God. But through Jesus Christ, we are not just restored—we are adopted.

This means:

God is no longer just your Creator—He becomes your Father

You are no longer distant—you are accepted and loved

You are no longer an outsider—you belong to Him

Adoption is not symbolic—it is spiritual reality.

You are given:

A new identity

A new position

A new relationship with God

And through the Holy Spirit, you are able to relate to God personally, crying out, “Abba, Father”—a deep expression of intimacy and closeness.

Key Truth

Salvation does not just change your condition—it changes your identity.

Reflection

Do you see God only as Lord, or do you truly know Him as your Father?

Q11: Why is this adoption so important that I must receive salvation?

Direct Answer

Adoption is important because it restores your true relationship with God—you are not just saved from sin, you are brought into intimacy, identity, and belonging as His child.

Scripture (NKJV)

"Behold what manner of love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God!" — 1 John 3:1 (NKJV)

"And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ…" — Romans 8:17 (NKJV)

"Having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself…" — Ephesians 1:5 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Adoption is at the very center of God's plan of salvation.

God did not save you just to forgive you and leave you at a distance—He saved you to bring you close as His own.

Without salvation:

You remain separated from God

You live without true spiritual identity

You are outside the family of God

But through salvation, everything changes.

Adoption is important because it gives you:

Identity — You know who you are: a child of God

Belonging — You are part of God's family

Access — You can come boldly to God as your Father

Inheritance — You share in what belongs to Christ

This is not just a theological idea—it is the deepest expression of God's love.

To reject salvation is not only to reject forgiveness, but to reject sonship—the opportunity to be called a child of God.

Key Truth

God did not only want to save you—He wanted to make you His own.

Reflection

Are you living as someone distant from God, or as a child who belongs to Him?

Q12: What are the benefits of adoption and salvation?

Direct Answer

The benefits of salvation and adoption include forgiveness of sins, a new identity as God's child, access to God, eternal life, and an inheritance in Christ.

Scripture (NKJV)

"In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins…" — Ephesians 1:7 (NKJV)

"And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ…" — Romans 8:17 (NKJV)

"For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father." — Ephesians 2:18 (NKJV)

"And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life." — 1 John 2:25 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not a small gift—it is a complete transformation with eternal benefits.

When you are saved and adopted into God's family, you receive:

Forgiveness of sins

Your past is cleansed, and your guilt is removed

A new identity

You are now a child of God, not a stranger

Access to God

You can approach Him freely, not with fear but with confidence

Eternal life

You are no longer bound to spiritual death

Inheritance in Christ

You share in what belongs to Jesus—spiritually and eternally

The presence of God

Through the Holy Spirit, God dwells within you

These benefits are not earned—they are received by grace. And they are not temporary—they are eternal.

Salvation changes not only your future, but also your present.

Key Truth

Salvation is not just rescue—it is a rich inheritance in God.

Reflection

Are you living in the fullness of what salvation has given you, or only a small part of it?

Q13: How did humanity become separated from God and in need of salvation?

Direct Answer

Humanity became separated from God through sin. When sin entered, it broke our relationship with God and brought spiritual death.

Scripture (NKJV)

"Therefore, just as through one man sin entered the world, and death through sin…" — Romans 5:12 (NKJV)

"For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God." — Romans 3:23 (NKJV)

"But your iniquities have separated you from your God…" — Isaiah 59:2 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

In the beginning, humanity was created to live in perfect relationship with God. There was no separation, no sin, and no death.

But when sin entered through disobedience, everything changed.

Sin entered the human nature

Death followed sin—both spiritual and physical

Separation from God became the condition of humanity

This separation is not just physical distance—it is spiritual disconnection. Humanity became cut off from the life, presence, and fellowship of God.

And this condition is universal: Every person is born into this fallen state. No one is naturally connected to God apart from salvation.

This is why salvation is not optional—it is necessary.

Without it, humanity remains in a state of separation and spiritual death.

Key Truth

Sin separated humanity from God—salvation is the only way back.

Reflection

Do you understand the seriousness of sin and why salvation is necessary?

Q14: What does it truly mean for me to be saved?

Direct Answer

To be saved means you are forgiven of your sins, reconciled to God, given a new life in Christ, and assured of eternal life.

Scripture (NKJV)

"That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved." — Romans 10:9 (NKJV)

"Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." — Romans 5:1 (NKJV)

"Who has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love." — Colossians 1:13 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Salvation is not just something you understand—it is something you experience personally.

To be saved means:

You are forgiven

Your sins are no longer held against you

You are justified

You are declared righteous before God

You are reconciled

Your relationship with God is restored

You are transferred

From the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of Christ

You are made new

Your old life no longer defines you

You are secured for eternity

You now have the promise of eternal life

Salvation is not just a future hope—it is a present reality that changes who you are and how you live.

It is deeply personal:

Not "we are saved," but "I am saved."

Key Truth

Salvation is not just about what God has done—it is about what He has done in you.

Reflection

Can you confidently say, "I am saved," and understand what that truly means in your life?

Q15: Do I have to earn salvation?

Direct Answer

No. Salvation cannot be earned—it is a free gift from God, received by grace through faith in Jesus Christ.

Scripture (NKJV)

"For by grace you have been saved through faith… not of works, lest anyone should boast." — Ephesians 2:8–9 (NKJV)

"But to him who does not work but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness." — Romans 4:5 (NKJV)

"Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to His mercy He saved us…" — Titus 3:5 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

One of the greatest misunderstandings about salvation is the idea that it must be earned.

Human nature often thinks: "I must do good to be accepted by God."

"I must fix myself before I come to Him."

But the truth is the opposite.

Salvation is:

Not a reward for good behavior

Not something you achieve through effort

Not based on your righteousness

It is entirely based on:

God's grace

Jesus Christ's finished work on the cross

If salvation could be earned, then the death of Jesus would not have been necessary.

You do not come to God because you are good—

You come because He is good.

Good works do not produce salvation;

Salvation produces good works.

Key Truth

You do not work for salvation—you receive it by faith.

Reflection

Are you trying to earn what God has already freely given?

Q16: Are there different types of salvation?

Direct Answer

There is only one salvation—through Jesus Christ—but it is experienced in different dimensions: past, present, and future.

Scripture (NKJV)

"Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." — Acts 4:12 (NKJV)

"For by grace you have been saved…" — Ephesians 2:8 (NKJV)

"Work out your own salvation with fear and trembling…" — Philippians 2:12 (NKJV)

"Now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed." — Romans 13:11 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

There are not multiple kinds of salvation—there is only one, and it is found in Jesus Christ alone.

However, salvation unfolds in three dimensions:

 1. Past — You Have Been Saved (Justification)

This is the moment you believe in Jesus Christ.

You are forgiven, declared righteous, and made right with God.

▪ You are saved from the penalty of sin

 2. Present — You Are Being Saved (Sanctification)

This is your daily walk with God.

You are growing, changing, and becoming more like Christ.

▪ You are being saved from the power of sin

 3. Future — You Will Be Saved (Glorification)

This is the final fulfillment of salvation.

You will be completely free from sin and its effects forever.

▪ You will be saved from the presence of sin

Salvation is not only a moment—it is also a process and a promise.

It has been completed in Christ

It is being worked out in your life

It will be fully revealed in eternity

Key Truth

Salvation is one in source (Jesus), but experienced across your entire life and into eternity.

Reflection

Are you only looking at salvation as a moment, or are you walking in its ongoing work in your life?

Q17: In how many ways can a person receive salvation?

Direct Answer

There is only one way to receive salvation—through faith in Jesus Christ.

Scripture (NKJV)

“Jesus said to him, ‘I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.’” — John 14:6 (NKJV)

“Nor is there salvation in any other…” — Acts 4:12 (NKJV)

“Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved…” — Acts 16:31 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

In a world with many beliefs, opinions, and religious systems, it is important to understand this truth clearly:

Salvation is not found in many ways—it is found in one Person: Jesus Christ.

You cannot receive salvation through:

Good works

Religion

Moral living

Personal effort

Any other name or system

Salvation is received when a person:

Hears the gospel

Believes in Jesus Christ

Places their faith in His finished work on the cross

There are not multiple paths leading to the same destination—

There is one way, and that way is Jesus.

This is not limitation—it is clarity. God has made the way simple and accessible to all, but it is only through His Son.

Key Truth

There are many opinions about God, but only one way to Him—Jesus Christ.

Reflection

Have you truly come to God through Jesus Christ, or are you trusting in another way?

Q18: If I received salvation because I wanted relief from life's challenges, is it true salvation?

Direct Answer

It depends on the heart. Coming to God because of need is not wrong, but true salvation happens when you come to Jesus for who He is—not just for what He can do for you.

Scripture (NKJV)

"You will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart." — Jeremiah 29:13 (NKJV)

"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." — John 8:32 (NKJV)

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation…" — 2 Corinthians 5:17 (NKJV)

Expanded Insight

Many people come to God during difficult times—when they are in pain, confusion, or desperation. This is not wrong. In fact, it often becomes the doorway that leads them to Him.

However, salvation is not simply about escaping problems—it is about surrendering your life to Jesus Christ.

If someone comes to God only for:

Relief

Help

Breakthrough

Or temporary solutions

…but never truly:

Repents

Believes in Jesus

Surrenders their life

Then that experience may not be genuine salvation.

True salvation goes deeper:

It changes your heart, not just your situation

It shifts your focus from your problems to Christ

It leads to a relationship, not just a moment of need

You may come because of your struggles, but you must stay because you have found Jesus Himself.

Key Truth

Salvation is not about using God to fix your life—it is about giving Him your life.

Reflection

Did you come to Jesus only for what He could do, or have you truly received Him as Lord of your life?

FINAL INVITATION: RECEIVE SALVATION

There is no greater decision you will ever make than to receive salvation through Jesus Christ.

You have read, you have understood, and now the invitation stands before you.

Salvation is not something to delay. It is not something to think about endlessly. It is something to receive.

God has already done His part.

Jesus has already paid the price.

The door is open.

Now the decision is yours.

What You Must Do

The Bible teaches that salvation comes when you:

Believe in your heart that Jesus Christ is the Son of God

Confess with your mouth that He is Lord

Turn from your old life and surrender to Him

Scripture (NKJV)

"That if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved." — Romans 10:9

PRAYER OF SALVATION

If you are ready to receive salvation, pray this sincerely from your heart:

"Lord Jesus,

I come to You today just as I am.

I acknowledge that I am a sinner and that I need You.

I believe that You are the Son of God,

That You died for my sins,

And that You rose again from the dead.

Today, I turn away from my sin,

And I surrender my life to You.

Come into my heart, Lord Jesus.

Be my Lord and my Savior.

I receive Your gift of salvation by faith.

Thank You for forgiving me.

Thank You for making me a child of God.

From today, I choose to follow You. Amen."

Final Word

If you have prayed this prayer with a sincere heart, you are saved.

This is not the end—it is the beginning of a new life in Christ.

Walk with Him. Grow in Him. Live for Him.

Encouragement

Now that you are saved:

•Begin reading the Word of God

•Pray and build your relationship with Him

•Connect with other believers

•Live out the new life you have received.

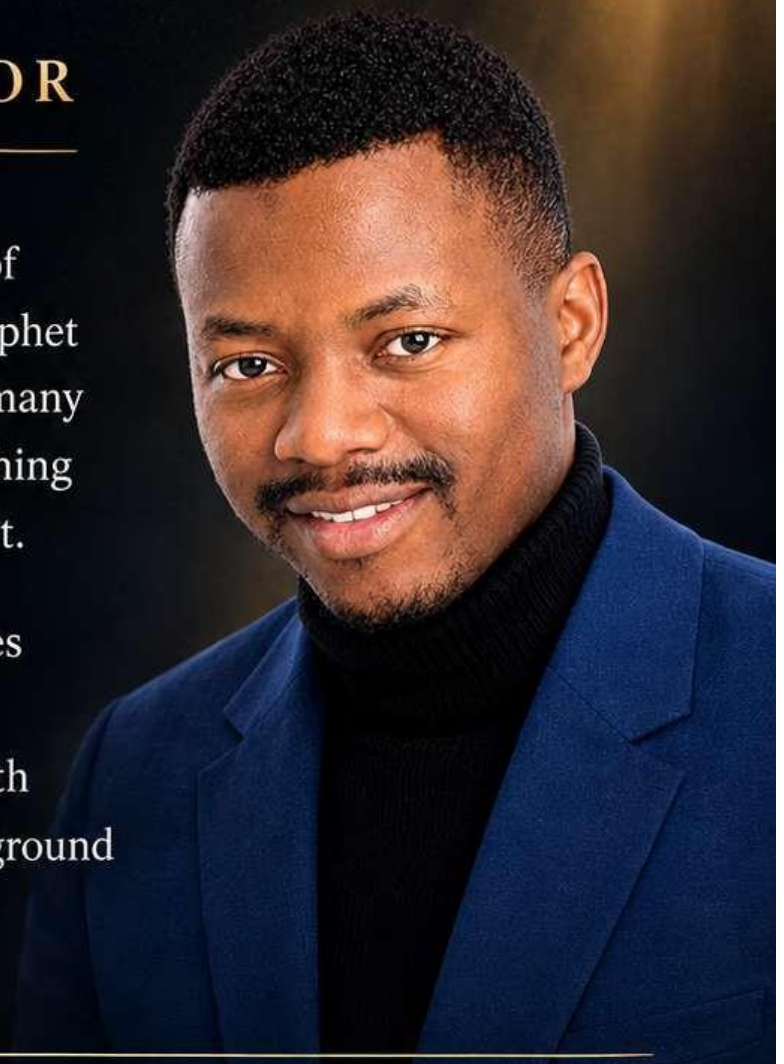

•Feel free to get in touch with us for further guidance…..

•The Gift: "Download the digital version of this book completely free to read on your phone, tablet or computer."

•The Mission: "Many people in our community do not have access to smartphones or the internet to read this message. We want to print physical copies to give to them entirely for free."

•The Invitation (Donation): "If this book blessed you, please consider donating. 100% of donations go directly toward printing costs for those without technology.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Robison Mutunami is the founder of Life in Christ Fellowship and a Prophet called to proclaim the Gospel. For many years he dedicated his life to preaching the Word and leading lives to Christ.

In Spotlight On Salvation, he shares a spiritually enlightening message designed to reach those seeking faith and to encourage, strengthen, and ground believers in their daily walk.

SUPPORT THE MINISTRY

Scan to support the work

robisonmutunami.co.za

SPOTLIGHT ON SALVATION

ISBN 978-0-639-12345-8